Dear Tereza,

I wanted to take a moment to tell you how grateful I am for the wonderful time we've had together during the past year. It feels like only yesterday when you arrived from your country, Brazil, to live with us here in Houston, Texas. Now that your stay with us is coming to an end, I have mixed feelings of happiness and sadness. I want you to know that you've brought so much joy and warmth to our family, and I appreciate all the special moments we've shared.

From the moment you arrived, it was clear that you were meant to be a part of our family. Your lively personality and contagious laughter have brightened our lives in so many ways. Whether we were exploring Houston, trying delicious Tex-Mex food, or simply sitting together and talking, each moment with you has been amazing. I'll always remember our dinners, where we learned about each other's cultures and tried new recipes from Brazil. I'll miss your feijoada!

As you get ready for the next chapter of your life in Uruguay, please remember that our home and our hearts will always be open to you. You've become a true part of our family, and we'll miss you dearly. The memories we've made, the things we've learned, and the love we've shared will stay with us forever. You'll always have a home in Houston and a host family that loves you no matter what. We miss you already!

With love and best wishes,
Antonia and Octavio
